

Kira Lesley

Praise for the Kira Lesley EP

"Kira is an inspiration. It's a delight to hear her grow ever more confident in her unique voice and style. She doesn't back down" - Alexa Wiley, of Alexa Wiley and the Wilderness

"Kira Lesley's songs reflect a deep connection to her Northwest roots. Her lyrics explore the emotional landscapes and ongoing struggles of those who inhabit the high desert, the wet Western valley, and the remote Cascades. She does this with articulate storytelling and a wry sense of humor in a root-sy musical style - balancing her cynical eye with a tuneful smile and a compelling message of hope." - Marv Ross, of QuarterFlash and the Trail Band

Classic and Fresh

Portland-born Kira Lesley summons the spirit of her Pacific Northwest upbringing in her music. Kira's style draws on 1960s folk revival, sassy classic country and captivating storytelling. Live performances are vocals and acoustic guitar driven, with mountain dulcimer accents. Each song is a different experience.
